33RD ANNUAL RESCUE MISSION RIDE

Topeka, KS – June 22, 2025 — A.B.A.T.E. of Kansas – District #4 is proud to host the 33rd Annual Rescue Mission Ride, benefiting the Topeka Rescue Mission. The 33rd annual ride will take place on Sunday, June 22, 2025. This beloved event continues to unite the motorcycle community for a meaningful cause—supporting individuals and families experiencing homelessness and hunger.

- Registration begins at 1:00 PM
- Kickstands up at 2:00 PM
- Starting location: Topeka Rescue Mission, 600 N. Kansas Ave., Topeka, KS
- Ending location: Ozawkie American Legion Post 255, 10114 Old Town Trail, Ozawkie, KS

Participants are encouraged to make a $20 donation per rider. The ride will last approximately 45 minutes, offering a scenic route through the beautiful landscapes of Northeast Kansas. Upon arrival at the Ozawkie American Legion, riders will enjoy fellowship, door prizes, and a special plaque awarded to the top supporter who raises the highest amount of pledges.

This annual tradition is more than just a ride—it's a way to directly impact the lives of those served by Topeka Rescue Mission Ministries. All are invited to ride, give, and stand with us in supporting this vital mission.
